The First Amendment protects the individual's voice and vote, not the financial amplifier, Red Lion Broadcasting Co. v. FCC, 395 U.S. 367 (1969); Judd v. FCC, et al., No. 98-1078 (D.C. Cir. 1999); Judd v. KOTA-TV, et al., USDC NM No. CIV-97-1278; No. 99- (10th Cir. 2000). Pre-Technology Electors are out-dated and do not represent the People, Reynolds v. Sims, 377 U.S. 533 (1964) (one-man, one vote principle). The First President of the United States, John Hancock, signed the Declaration of Independence, providing, "Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed." First Amendment provides individuals the Right to Petition the Government for Redress of Grievances. Article II and 12th Amendment require the President to be voted on, and elected before and separate from Vice President, as Vice President is President of Senate and votes on ties, Article I, Sec. 3, Cl. 4. A single vote for both President and Vice President violates separation of Powers between Legislative and Executive, Buckley v. Valeo, 424 U.S. 1 (1976). As such, Lt. Governor is voted on separate from Governor, Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980); 18 U.S.C. § 241, 242; Judd v. U.S. Dist. Court, USDC No. MC-98-CA-167; 5th Cir. Nos. 98-11862, 51118, 51195; Supreme Court No. 99-5260. As such, Keith Russell Judd For President of USA U.S. Passport No. 132617459, is the Legal President of the United States at present. 18 U.S.C. § 3056. USA v. Judd, USDC No. MC-98-CA-0958; 5th Cir. Nos. 98-51081, et al.; Supreme Court Nos. 98-7575, et al. Respectfully Submitted,
